However, the assessment of ΔHR and ΔMAP does not consider the stress difference between PULLU and ABLA pens. The safety of pen based in treatment and research is difficult to assess. One of the limitations of the study is that we only used healthy volunteers and did not assess the safety of the pens. The second is that study only examined the effect of the new markers that contained CELFX and plasticizer on cardiovascular variables, as well as the effect of several amounts of these additives on pressure and heart rate. More markers should be tested to determine whether this may be a safety issue in the treatment of pain with PENS. Thirdly, the pain stimulus of PULLU was not investigated as it has been extensively used in previous studies. Conclusions {#Sec11} ===== No adverse effect on cardiovascular variables were observed in healthy volunteers. This means that PULLU is safe to use in research and therapeutic applications. However, larger, randomized trials are needed to assess the safety of the new markers in a clinical setting. Express News Service By The state government has decided to give financial aid of Rs. 5 lakh to those candidates who are willing to give up their seats, said Chief Minister Kamal Nath on Monday. Nath made the announcement on a day the Karnataka Assembly Speaker declared the result of the polls inconclusive. While he offered the financial aid to those seats where his party, the Congress, was not able to retain its sitting MLA, Nath said the government would give all the financial help to those who are willing to give up their seats for others from the Congress. The Chief Minister said there were about 1,054 MLAs in the Legislature. "We would like that those who are ready to give up their seats get financial help if the Congress wins. The amount would be fixed after deliberations with the party. We would give seat-sharing formula after knowing number of such MLAs," Nath told reporters. Speaker KR Ramesh Kumar had announced the results on July 29 but in a sudden development, there was a delay in announcing the numbers. On Monday, when the state Assembly met, the speaker asked the Chief Minister to make all arrangements for holding the polls again in
